For All the Saints

1. For all the saints, who from their labors rest,
   Thee, by faith before the world confessed,
   Their names, O Jesus, be forever blest.

2. Thou wast their rock, their fortress, and their might;
   Thee in the well-fought fight,
   Thou, in the darkness drear, their one true light.

3. O may thy soldiers, faithful, true, and bold,
   Fight as the saints who nobly fought of old,
   All are one in thee, for all are thine.

4. O blest communion, fellowship divine!
   Steals on the ear the distant triumph song,
   Hearts are brave again, and arms are strong.

5. And when the strife is fierce, the warfare long,
   We feebly struggle, they in glory shine;
   Singing to Father, Son, and Holy Ghost:

6. From earth's wide bounds, from ocean's farthest coast,
   Through the gates of pearl streams in the countless host,
